FIRE STARTER STUDIOS

HELLO!

Your state-of-the-art location for video productions and photography shoots of all sizes.

ABOUT US

Fire Starter production studio is a woman-owned stage in Santa Clarita, north Los Angeles. The black-box sound stage boasts a 5,500 square foot facility, fully offered to the tenant.

At the production facility, clients can lease the entire space for your production, or use our production services. Bring your crew or we can with crewing up your team, bringing in gear, or even facilitate script to delivery. The client calls the shots!

Our rental abilities extend to cameras, grip, and lighting. We have partnerships with vetted vendors that are at your disposal.

In Santa Clarita, CA the production stage is a newly built, quiet, spacious, and state-of-the-art black box production studio. The studio offers a 65' x 45' stage with 24' high ceilings with direct drive-in loading access with plenty of on-site parking.

ENHANCED AMENITIES

With nearly 5,500SF of total space, there is ample room for crew, talent, and clients, including 2 executive offices with balconies, 5 offices, makeup and wardrobe space, 2 postproduction edit rooms, as well as 2 ADA compliant restrooms and a catering-ready kitchen. The space includes two bullpen areas.

You are invited to tour and film here on your next production.
